The course

This program focuses on the skill that criminal defense lawyers use most often — cross-examination. The seminar presents a comprehensive approach, using concrete examples, of the “why and how” of cross-examination. Attorneys at all experience levels find the program informative and useful in defining and honing cross-examination skills.

Enrollment for this program is limited. Registrations will be accepted on a first-come, first-serve basis, so early registration is encouraged.

This program uses the same successful NCDC teaching methods as our other programs. Lectures and demonstrations by a nationally recognized faculty supplement the small group workshops. In the workshops, participants conduct actual witness examinations before a video camera, a member of the faculty, and other members of the small group. Witness roles, including the victim, the accomplice, the police officer, and the bystander eyewitness, are played by actors trained to present realistic problems encountered by criminal defense lawyers.

Accommodations

Advanced Cross-Examination will be held at the Renaissance Atlanta Hotel-Concourse. The hotel has 24 hour free shuttle service.

NCDC will arrange hotel accommodations for participants, at a special rate of $89.00 per night single or double occupancy. Please note: participants will make payment for all room charges directly to the hotel. Complete the reservation portion of the registration form in this brochure and return it to NCDC. These rates will be available only until Oct. 6, 2011.

A reserved room will be held until 4:00 p.m. Thursday, Oct. 27. If you will be checking in after that time, you must arrange for a deposit (or a credit card guarantee) directly with us, or with the hotel at (404)209-9999 or FAX (404)209-7031. We send the hotel a housing list 2 weeks before the program so please do not call before then. If you wish to share a hotel room with another participant to economize, we will attempt (but not guarantee) to find you a roommate.

Tuition

The tuition fee including course materials is $550.00. Fees must be paid by Oct. 6, 2011, unless other specific arrangements are made. A $25.00 non-refundable registration fee (to be applied to tuition) must accompany registration if not paid in full. No scholarship funds will be available for this program. See the website (www.ncdc.net) for the new summer session reunion discount!

Payment may be made by check (payable to the National Criminal Defense College), Mastercard, or Visa, or American Express. You should receive written confirmation of acceptance within 10 working days. If you do not, please contact NCDC at (478) 746-4151.

Other information

The National Criminal Defense College does not discriminate on the basis of race, gender, religion, disability, sexual orientation, or national origin.

The NCDC will apply for CLE accreditation for this program in all states where participants request credit. NCDC programs are approved for CLE credit in most jurisdictions. Where a state charges for CLE credits, those charges will be passed along to participants requesting credit from that state.

The faculty listed are expected to teach at the program; however, trial schedules change and faculty commitments are subject to alteration.

Substitutions & cancellations

This program admits participants on a first come, first served basis. Cancellations are accepted until one week before the start date. Tuition fees (less the $25 registration fee) will be refunded for cancellations received prior to the deadline. After that, no refund will be granted if the space cannot be filled from the waiting list; however, we may be able to apply credit to a future program if circumstances allow. Substitutions may be approved upon request.
